Mail Box Rifled, 4 Letters Lost

Torrance police and postoffice inspectors are probing the rifling of a mail box at the home of Harold L. Fredrickson, 2325 W. 187th Pl. Fredrickson reported to police department that he had placed mail in his box for postman to pick up, and he later noticed the letters had been pawed through, scattered around the porch and that four were missing. In the missing envelopes were four checks made payable to various utility services. Fredrickson was advised to stop payment.
